General Comment

I have every right & responsibility to plan for and care for my own retirement with my own 401k and/or IRA retirement accounts. The government has no right nor responsibility to tell me what I can or cannot do with my personal property including my retirement accounts. Should I decide to fund SpaceX great. Buy or sell property, fantastic. Start a llama farm, even better. Give my money to charity, buy a goat, or decide to tour the country in a VW microbus... My CHOICE.

Truth is I would likely invest in some boring companies which have a great success record & reap the rewards which come with company share ownership. Point is::

My CHOICE what to do with MY retirement savings.
